Other important information

In general all retail depositors and businesses are covered by the Deposit Guarantee Scheme. Exceptions for certain deposits are stated on the website of the responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme. Your credit institution will also inform you on request whether certain products are covered or not. If deposits are covered, the credit institution shall also confirm this periodically on the statement of account.

¹ Scheme responsible for the protection of your deposit:

Your deposit is covered by the Dutch statutory Deposit Guarantee Scheme. If insolvency of your credit institution should occur, your deposits would be repaid up to €100 000.

² General limit of protection:

If a deposit is unavailable because a credit institution is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by the Dutch Deposit Guarantee Scheme. This repayment covers at maximum €100 000 per credit institution. This means that all deposits at the same credit institution are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance a depositor holds a savings account with €90 000 and a current account with €20 000, he or she will be repaid €100 000.

This method will also be applied if a credit institution operates under different trademarks. Coöperatieve Rabobank U.A. also trades or has traded under the names Rabobank, Roparco, RaboDirect, Rabobank.be, Rabobank Nederland, Rabobank International (including branches in the European Union); in addition all local Rabobanks (parts of Coöperatieve Rabobank U.A.) use their own name - please refer to overview on <https://www.rabobank.com/en/images/list-of-trade-names-of-rabobank-and-local-rabobanks.pdf>. This means that all deposits with one or more of these trademarks are in total covered up to €100 000.

³ Limit of protection for joint accounts:

In case of joint accounts, the limit of €100 000 applies to each depositor.

In the exceptional case of bankruptcy of your credit institution on the moment you have a deposit directly resulting from real estate transactions relating to private residential properties your deposits will be protected for a period of three months after the deposit for an additional amount which will not exceed €500 000.
